About Clan Lindsay

Our Clan Chief is The Rt Hon The Earl of Crawford and Balcarres. He is a Knight of the Thistle, a Privy Councillor and a Deputy Lieutenant.

We have one of the most beautiful tartans in the world. We are justifiably proud to wear our clan colours.

We encourage our members to wear the colours at all Clan Lindsay events, and Scottish Games and Gatherings.

Our crest-badge is a swan's head, neck and wings proper, issuing from an antique ducal coronet Or, all within a strap and buckle bearing the chief's motto.

The badge features a swan in its natural colours, white with a yellow beak, within a gold crest-coronet heightened with four (three visible) strawberry-leaves.

Our motto, Endure Fort, means 'endure bravely'.

We also have a plant badge, the lime tree.

To meet these aims, we are developing a genealogical database of Clan Lindsay folk and their ancestors, to assist our members and other inquirers to trace their family history. We are in contact with the Scottish, USA and New Zealand branches of the society, and the Lindsays International DNA project, and we will inform you of their research.

Your personal records will remain confidential and will not be released to other members without your express permission. We may release historical genealogical records from time to time.
